Flowers Gallery is delighted to announce that the 33rd edition of the annual Small is Beautiful exhibition will this year, for the first time, take place simultaneously in London and New York. Small is Beautiful, which was first established in 1974, invites selected contemporary artists working in any media to present works with a fixed economy of scale, each piece measuring a maximum of 7 x 9 inches.

On display in the Cork Street gallery will be over 150 works by an international roster of gallery artists alongside invited guests, which this year includes Alison Wilding, Gary Wragg, Vithya Truong, Sophie Smallhorn, Jeff Lowe, Tom Hunter, Maggi Hambling, Guy Haddon Grant, Laura Ford, John Carter, Juno Calypso and Rana Begum.

As in previous years, Flowers Gallery gives a great opportunity for young, unrepresented or neglected artists a chance to shine alongside more established or famous artists. I bought my first and still treasured work of art from the 1st edition in 1974. - Matthew Flowers
