Flowers Gallery is pleased to announce the 35th edition of the annual Small is Beautiful exhibition, which will take place at the Cork Street gallery. Small is Beautiful was first established at Flowers Gallery in 1974, inviting selected contemporary artists working in any media to present works with a fixed economy of scale, each piece measuring no more than 7 x 9 inches.

On display will be works by more than 100 artists, offering a rare opportunity to purchase smaller pieces by internationally recognised names and discover new talents working across a range of media.

The exhibition includes work by artists from over twelve countries, including paintings by Korean artist Kwon Kisoo; hand-embroidered photographs by Dutch artist Scarlett Hooft Graafland; and a set of two Special Issue Trump Stamps by LA-based British pop art pioneer Derek Boshier.

The works from Small is Beautiful will also be available to purchase from Flowers Gallery's online store: (www.flowersgallery.com/shop).
