Flowers Gallery is delighted to announce that the 33rd edition of the annual Small is Beautiful exhibition will this year, for the first time, take place simultaneously in New York and London.

Small is Beautiful, which was first established in 1974, invites selected contemporary artists working in any media to present works with a fixed economy of scale, each piece measuring a maximum of 9 x 7 inches.

On display in the Chelsea gallery will be works by an international roster of gallery artists and invited guests, with an emphasis on US based artists. This will include Aleah Chapin, Eric Aho, Polly Borland, Malerie Marder, Richard Smith, Judith Murray, Shen Wei, Richard Tuschman, and Hrvoje Slovinc.

As in previous years, Flowers Gallery gives a great opportunity for young, unrepresented or neglected artists a chance to shine alongside more established or famous artists. I bought my first and still treasured work of art from the 1st edition in 1974.
- Matthew Flowers
