Flowers Gallery celebrates its 50th anniversary in February 2020. As part of the dedicated programming to mark this event, Flowers Gallery is delighted to announce a retrospective exhibition of works by artists represented by the Gallery within their lifetime.

This selection of paintings, photographs, prints and sculpture celebrates their contribution to the gallery programme, and the wider enduring legacy of their work.

To coincide, an exhibition of contemporary work produced by represented artists takes place at the London Kingsland Road gallery from 11 February. The exhibition 50 x 50 includes 50 works by 50 represented artists, at 50 x 50cm. For more information please click here.

ABOUT FLOWERS GALLERY

Established in London in 1970 by Angela Flowers, Flowers Gallery is one of the longest-standing international contemporary art galleries. Today, the gallery has two London locations in Mayfair and Shoreditch, with a team based in New York and a new space in Hong Kong, opening with a dedicated exhibition programme in 2020. Flowers Gallery currently represents more than 50 international artists and artist's estates, working with a wide range of media. Over the past five decades the gallery has presented more than 900 exhibitions across its global locations, also supporting the production of artist's publications and the presentation of works by gallery artists in public galleries, museums and institutions around the world. The gallery programme includes renowned recurring exhibitions such as Artist of the Day and Small is Beautiful, which have formed an important high-profile platform for many emerging and under-recognised contemporary artists.
