

Access Information

- There is a ramped entrance to the ground floor of the gallery.
- Large print information on the exhibition and artists is available on request.
- There are stairs to the lower ground floor but there is a TV screen in the ground floor space showing footage of the presentation downstairs, with a voiceover and subtitles.
- A video exhibition walkthrough with the curators is also available online.